18           The Court, having reviewed the papers and pleadings filed in this matter, including the 19 United States’ Motion and supporting Declaration of Drug Enforcement Administration (“DEA”)
20 Special Agent (“SA”) Steven J. Meyer, and there being no timely objection, hereby FINDS that 21 entry of a protective order restraining the above-identified property (hereafter, the “Subject 22 Property”) is appropriate because:

- 23           • The United States gave notice in the Superseding Indictment of its intent to pursue 24 forfeiture of any proceeds of, and property that facilitated, the Conspiracy to Distribute 25 Controlled Substances (Dkt. No. 40);
- 26           • The United States also gave notice of its intent to pursue forfeiture in the Forfeiture Bill

1 of Particulars, which specifically identifies the Subject Property (Dkt. No. 269);

- 2 • Based on the facts set forth in SA Meyer's Declaration, there is probable cause to believe 3 the Subject Property is subject to forfeiture in this case; and
4 • To ensure the Subject Property remains available for forfeiture, its continued restraint,
5 pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(e)(1), is appropriate.

6 NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT ORDERS:

7 1. The United States' Motion for a protective order restraining the Subject Property
8 pending the conclusion of this case (Dkt. No. 270) is GRANTED; and

9 2. The Subject Property shall remain in the custody of the United States, and/or its 10 authorized agents or representatives, pending the conclusion of criminal forfeiture proceedings
11 and/or further order of this Court.
